

Poll Ideas

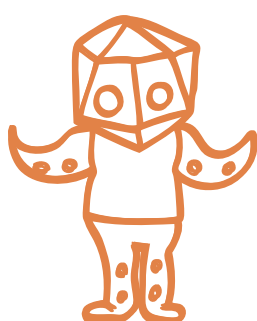

A good poll will involve relatable or personal elements that make it fun for people to vote on. You also want to ensure that it involves topics, items, or situations that require little to no prior planning or information.

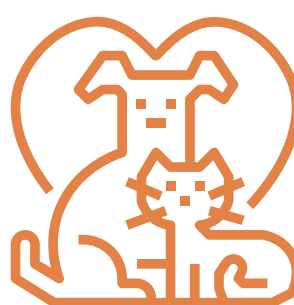

Who has the best mug?

Who has the best background?

Who has the weirdest background noises?

Vote for the Pet of the Day!

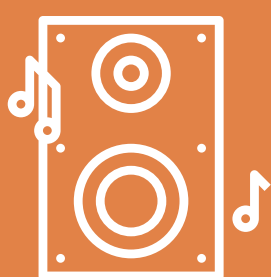

Most likely to be the first to sign into the meeting.

Most likely to be drinking the fanciest coffee.

Quiz Ideas

Everyone should have the chat open. First to answer correctly wins!

Quick Tune

Play the start of a popular song. Winner must know the song and artist.

Who Am I?

Pick a famous person and slowly give out clues until someone guesses it.

Zoom Out

Find a photo of a well-known item or landmark. Zoom in close, share your screen and slowly zoom out until someone guesses the answer.

